Rome, April 11. N. S.

THIS Morning was held a Conſiſtory, in which the Pope performed the Ceremony of Shutting and Opening the Mouths of the Cardinals Arquin and Morigia. The vacant Arch-Biſhopriek of Milan is not yet diſpoſed of; The Pope, it's ſaid, has offered it to Cardinal Morigia, but he is unwilling to accept of it, becauſe of the ill State of his Health. The Points of Ceremony between the Queen-Dowager of Poland and the Cardinals being agreed, ſhe has been viſited by Cardinal Spada Chief Miniſter to the Pope, and by the Cardinal de Bouillon, who acts here at preſent as Ambaſſador of France, and Cardinal Giudici, who does the like for the Crown of Spain, and by ſeveral other Cardinals. The Queen continues as yet incognito, and is attended when ſhe goes abroad by Prince Odeſchalci's Coaches and Servants; but it's ſaid, ſhe intends ſhortly to appear in Publick with a very ſplendid Equipage. None of the Ambaſſadors here have yet viſited her, becauſe they demand the ſame Treatment that is given to the Cardinals, which being denied them, they have wrote to their ſeveral Maſters, that they may receive their Orders thereupon. The Emperor having lately given the Title of Royal Highneſs to the Great Duke of Tuſcany, we hear the Marquis of Vitelli is coming from Florence to Notifie the ſame to the Pope and College of Cardinals, and to deſire they will likewiſe give the Great Duke this Title; It's ſaid, he will bring with him the Cap of the Cardinal of Medici, his Eminency intending to diveſt himſelf of that Dignity, and to marry the Princeſs of Guaſtalla, by reaſon the Great Prince and Princeſs Gaſton, his Nephews, have hitherto no Iſſue.

Venice, April 18. The Duke of Mantua has bought the Palace in this City that belonged to the late General Zen, and it's ſaid, the Dutcheſs of Mantua intends to come and reſide here. The time for which the Office of General of the Forces of Dalmatia was given to Signior Mocenigo being expired, the Senate will meet to morrow to appoint one to ſucceed him. Signior Priuli arrived here this week from Zant. By a Ship come in from Napoli di Romania we have Advice, that the Chevalier Delfino was ſailed from thence with 8 Men of War for Corfou; and the reſt of the Fleet continued in that Port. The John and Laurence, and the Bembow Galley, arrived this week from Ireland. Yeſterday ſailed from hence the Unity, and the Mazarine Galley, bound for Zant.

Madrid, April 15. The King of Spain intends, towards the latter end of this Month, to remove to Aranguez for the benefit of the Air. The Duke de Moles having deſired to be excuſed from going with the Character of Ambaſſador to the Court of Portugal, the King has conſented thereunto, and has given him the Office of Preſident of the Supreme Council for the Affairs of Italy. Baron Berlipi, whom the King has made choice of to go to Vienna with the Character of his Envoy Extraordinary to Congratulate the King and Queen of the Romans on their Marriage, is made Councellor of the Supreme Council for the Affairs of Flanders; He is to take his way by Bruſſels to make the Compliments of Condoleance to the Elector of Bavaria on the Death of the Electoral Prince, his Son. The Government of Porto Mahon is given to Don Juan Zepida; the Office of Chancellor, in the Royal Council of the Weſt-Indies, to Don Antonio d'Arangen and Zubiate; and that of Councellor of Granada to Don Emanuel Calvo. Don Juan de Navarro, General of the Order de la Mercede, is lately made a Grandee of Spain. Admiral Aylmer, with the Squadron of Men of War under his Command, ſailed from Cadiz the 30th of the laſt Month, and on the 4th Inſtant was at Fungerol near Malaga, and intended to ſail from thence that day following for Algiers.

Genoua, April 25. The Spaniſh Expedition Packet-boat arrived here the 22d Inſtant in three days from Falmouth. Yeſterday ſailed from hence, the Joſeph Ketch, James Morton Maſter, and the Warren, William Oliver Maſter, from the Canaries; and the Hopewell, John Cuzzby Maſter, from Lisbon; being all three bound for London. The Letters from Oporto ſay, divers Engliſh Merchant-ſhips ſailed thence ſome days before for Newfoundland. They write from Malaga, that Admiral Aylmer paſſed by that Place the 5th Inſtant going for Algiers.

Warſaw, April 15. The King of Poland has writ to the Crown-General and the Great-General of Lithuania, to deſire they will come hither, that he may conſult with them about ſeveral Matters relating to the Forces of this Crown. We hear, that at ſome of the Provincial Diets the Gentry have reſolved to appear in a Body at the General Diet, which is to meet here on the 16th of June next. They write from Lemberg, that the Baſſa of Caminiec, and the other Commanders of the Turkiſh Forces on that Frontier, have forbid the Tartars to make any Incurſions into the Territories of Poland; That all Things are now very quiet in thoſe Parts, and the Inhabitants on the Borders of Ruſland have begun to ſow their Land which have lain untilled during the War.

Vienna, April 18. It's believed, the Imperial and Turkiſh Commiſſioners have by this time begun their Conferences for ſettling the Limits in Hungary, and ſo ſoon as this is done, ſeveral ſmall Places will be delivered up on both ſides purſuant to the late Treaty. Directions are ſent to Hungary for repairing the Fortifications of Eſſeck, Peter-Waradin, Arath, and Buda, and ſeveral Regiments
